NEWS BY TO-DAY'S MAIL.

The Ohio Democratic Convention has nominated Alexander Long for Governor, and passed State Rights resolutions.

The last accounts from the Shenandoah are the 23d of June, when she had burned another whaler in the Northern Pacific, and, it was supposed, was attempting to capture others.
Her career cannot be longer continued, we should think.

A "Mr. S." of Burlington, eloped last week with the wives of three of the most respected citizens of Nashua, New Hampshire. They crossed to Canada on a lumber barge, under cover of night and the old Turk was last heard of at Saint Leon, Canada East, closely pursued by one of the injured husbands.

The St. Mary's County, Md., Beacon says that during the past few weeks, the negroes in some sections of that county have been making rather a fearful abuse of their enlarged legal privileges, and two homicides and a stabbing affray have been the result.

There are now but five prisoners at Fort Warren. Mr. Stephens, for the last ten days, has been released from close confinement, and is permitted to walk wherever he pleases in the fort, between reveille and retreat, and even ascend the ramparts. He is always unguarded.

The Democrats of Minnesota held their convention for the nomination of State officers on Wednesday, the 16th inst. Resolutions were adopted sustaining the reconstruction policy of the President; in favor of the maintenance of the Monroe doctrine; opposing a protective tariff; and denouncing the suspension of the writ of habeas corpus.

A "profound sensation" has been made at Saratoga, by an English lady, the wife of an attache of the British legation, who has introduced the fashion of staining the eyelids and under the eyes, to a deep black, giving a strange expression to a pallid and otherwise ordinary face. The ladies all exclaim in horror of such a barbarous fashion; but such is the fascination of crime, it spreads like an epidemic. At a ball, six ladies were seen with these frightful black eyes.

One of the Government farms for the employment of freedmen, is located on the Pafux-ent river, in Maryland. This farm, according to the account of a contemporary, embraces about thirty thousand acres; but only about twenty-two hundred acres are now under cultivation, much of the land being still covered with timber. From seven to eight hundred negroes are employed here, principally in raising corn and tobacco.

A circular letter has been sent to each of the Provisional Governors, notifying them that the Department is ready to restore the mail service upon the Southern railroads so soon as the said Provisional Governors can certify that they are in operation and controlled by proper persons.

The civil governor of Port Mahon, who is chief of the quarantine, has received official information that the cholera had appeared on the coast of Spain. Directions have been given that proper care must be taken to prevent the spreading of the disease, should vessels arrive having it on board. Port Mahon is the principal quarantine station in the Mediterranean.

The Catholic Bishop of Philadelphia, has received a missive from Rome, denying that "any thing in favor of the Fenian Society has emanated from the Holy See."

The President has appointed Hannibal Hamlin collector, Daniel W. Gooch surveyor, and A. B. Underwood naval officer of the port of Boston.

SHERMAN ON McCLELLAN.—The Missouri Republican says that a zealous republican politician approached Gen. Sherman in Ohio the other day, and indulged in some remarks reflecting severely on McClellan, after which he asked Sherman what he thought of the late "copperhead candidate for President."— The General, says the Republican, straightened himself up, and, with warmth, earnestness and emphasis, replied that Gen. McClellan was one of the ablest and best generals that commanded during the war; that he had discharged his duty faithfully and efficiently until he was removed, and that he (Sherman) had great respect for his opinions.

SUICIDE OF A POLYGAMIST—TEN WOMEN WIDOWED.—The Cedar Falls Gazette gives an account of the arrest, examination and conviction of a life insurance agent, named Frank N. Case, from Wisconsin, on a charge of bigamy. It was ascertained that he had married no less than ten different wives, all of whom are living. Five of these marriages occurred in the East, and the rest in various parts in the West. His last victim was a respectable lady in Cedar Falls, whom he married clandestinely, in opposition to the wishes of her parents, last April. He has lately been courting another lady in that vicinity, whom he intended to marry, shortly. On Friday morning Case hanged himself in his cell at the jail in Cedar Falls.

The Canadian government intend to defer the confederation, inter colonial, railway, and defence questions, until 1866. The government is to remove to Ottawa next month. The late speech of U. S. Consul Potter, about annexation, the reciprocity treaty, &c., is said to be under government consideration. It gave great offence.

A letter mentions the death in Worcester, Mass., of a person who blew out a kerosene lamp in the usual way, when the lamp exploded, covering her from head to foot with the liquid fire, and causing her death in a few minutes. Extinguish your lamps by blowing through the holes around the burner.

The Washington correspondent of the Baltimore Sun says:—"Though it is yet more than three months before Congress convenes, we have evidences of combinations and movements which look to a wild hunt after the nice places in connection with both branches of the national legislature.

The safe of Stephen Patton, of Portland, Maine, was blown open by burglars lately, and robbed of twenty-five thousand dollars in money and bonds, including ten thousand five-twenties.
